"If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors
 to live the life which he has imagined,
 he will meet with a success unexpected
 in common hours."

Henry David Thoreau

The fourth hour speech class, in a mock TV performance, find themselves engrossed in a good slug of red pop and a fast game of Old Maid.

Whoops! Down goes the pyramid!

Homecoming hopes defeated by 16 points

The 1967 Homecoming started out with a rainy eve, but the crowd still pushed through the gates to spur the Tigers on. As the pep rally neared its finish, and the effigy of the Anchor Bay Tars burst into flames, Tiger fan spirit reached its peak. The next morning the sun shone brightly—it was a beautiful day for the Homecoming festivities. The Tigers, raring to go, held a lead over the Tars until the third quarter when Anchor Bay gained a 16 point lead. The final score, Anchor Bay-35, Armada-19, slightly dampened the Homecoming spirit, but never let it be said that AHS loses its pride and faith in its team!

BELOW-BOTTOM: Although the rain poured on, brave and spirited spectators appeared everywhere. MIDDLE: Excitement rises as Miss Karin Vanlerberghe is named Homecoming Queen, 1967. TOP: The climax is reached as the traditional effigy is ignited.

Queen Karin receives the royal kiss from Mr. Sura and her father Mr. Julius Vanlerberghe after her coronation.

First Maid of Honor, Miss Kristen Holm, happily kisses her father, Mr. Reginald Holm.

Mr. John Cehr, proudly kisses his daughter, Miss Cheri Cehr, the Queen's Second Maid of Honor.

Seven seniors vie for crown

From approximately twenty candidates for Homecoming Queen, seven girls, coincidentally Seniors, were chosen as finalists. At a tea given in their honor, the girls were judged by a panel for their poise, grooming, and reasoning. At the pep rally the judges' decision for Queen and her two Maids of Honor was announced, and as the hectic week neared its end, the girls agreed it was an occasion they would never forget.

A reward for a good concert.

"Oom-pah-pah."

Marcia,
I want to say so much but I don't think there is enough room in this whole book. You are really a very special person. Marsh, don't let things get you down, you're a great cheerleader and you have a wonderful bouncy personality. I hope we can always be good friends. I know we will have a lot of fun this summer! Good Luck Always!

In memory

Earl Walter Williamson
1950-1966

At home with his father.

Mechanical ability at work.

Everyone knew and thought well of the red-haired, freckled-face boy with the bright, cheerful smile. Earl Williamson, an ambitious student of Armada High, was a top choice for valedictorian of the class of 1968. Active in Band as a saxaphonist and in Student Council as a voice of his class, Earl was dependable, trustworthy, and extremely popular. Starting junior year, Earl was anxious to begin the 1966 football season as a defensive and offensive end, but on September 6, 1966, only three days after the opening of school, Earl was involved in a fatal car accident.

Everyone was left with not only a great sorrow, but also many fond memories of a favorite friend. The annual staff would like to dedicate the following athletic section to the memory of Earl Williamson.

Hopes Are High for the Tennis Team

The 1967 Armada Tennis team played a 16 match schedule—winning 9 and losing 7. In league competition, Armada went undefeated taking all 8 league meets.

Phil Tutak, playing 1st singles, was voted the most valuable player by his teammates. Larry Liebler was voted team captain for the second straight year. The best individual won-lost record went to Matt DeBacker and Ken Walter, as they each won 11 and lost 5.

The 1968 tennis season could be successful with all players returning from last year's squad. Armada's eleven game consecutive win streak will face a stiff challenge from the new league member. Richmond is rated among the top five class C teams in the state this year.

Successful Season Hoped for in Track

The track team for 1968 has high hopes for success this year since they have many of last year's juniors returning. Under the direction of Mr. Kiel, the team should have a successful year in both short and long distance runs. Good luck in 1968, Track team.
